VIEWS ON INDIAN AFFAIRS.

A correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribans writing from St. Thomas, Lincoln county. July 3, gives some intelligent views of Indian affairs in that locality.

He says: There have been some sharp criticisms scattered around by the Nevada press, upon the Iudian agents, and the condi-tion of matters that should come under their special province to remedy, and as this is a fertile subject of reflection, and may be some time, of history, and par-tially belongs to the great public, I will suggest a few thoughts.

expected remedies approach; and as remedies are intended which require the movements of the ponderous machinery conciliation, by which our government has deputed the management of Indian affairs to the religious element of the country; a reservation is to be established here, and the red man taught the arts of peace. It is but just to say incumbent of this agency, G. W. Ingalls, is undoubtedly working honestly and sincerely in this matter, for what he regards a faultiess cause, and feels more sanguine of its success than many of the men and women of the Eastern States and those of the frontier communities would seem to suggest an insuffiof the romantic past, and who regard him as an orphaned and outcast wanleter on the earth, hungering for knowlwrong themselves by allowing a little weight to the opinions of those people whose better knowledge of Indian charimpressive experience.
